AI to promote Belagavi's heritage, tourism destinations

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

THE district administration is committed to taking Belagavi's rich historical, cultural and tourism heritage to the global stage, Deputy Commissioner Mohammad Roshan said recently.

Speaking at the World Tourism Day celebrations organised jointly by the district administration and the Tourism Department at Kumar Gandharva Kala Mandir in Belagavi, Roshan said historical sites such as the Patwardhan Palace, historic mosques and Rajhansgad Fort should be promoted beyond the state and the country to attract tourists from across the world.

The programme was inaugurated by Roshan, Senior Superintendent of Post Offices Aarushi Sharma, Deputy Director of Tourism Rohit Singh and Joint Director Geeta Kaulagi by lighting the ceremonial lamp. A tourism guide was also released on the occasion.

Roshan said modern technology was being effectively used to promote the district's tourism potential. A website incorporating QR codes and artificial intelligence (AI) technology has been launched to provide visitors with easy access to information about Belagavi's art, culture, historical heritage, tourist attractions and food culture.

He also highlighted the significance of Kumar Gandharva Kala Mandir and the Hindustani classical music tradition of the Dharwad gharana in enriching the region's cultural identity.

A tourism service was also launched during the programme. Officials and employees who had delivered outstanding services in the tourism sector were felicitated with certificates.

@ Vijayapura

ATTRACTING more tourists to Vijayapura's historical monuments would strengthen the district's economy and create significant employment opportunities for local people, Additional Director General of Police (Law and Order) R. Hitendra said.

He was speaking at a 'Swachhata Hi Seva' cleanliness programme organised at the historic Anand Mahal monument here on Saturday to mark World Tourism Day.

He said Vijayapura has gained global recognition for its historical monuments and architectural heritage. Promoting tourism in the district would provide abundant employment opportunities in tourism and allied sectors, he said.

Deputy Commissioner Dr. Anand K. said the administration was taking measures to conserve and beautify historical monuments and provide better infrastructure and facilities for tourists.

A proposal has been submitted to the Union Government for developing tourist destinations in the district under the 'Swadesh Darshan 2.0' scheme, he said.

The historic Taj Bawadi was being developed under the 'Adopt a Heritage' scheme in association with the Tata Consultancy Foundation and World Monuments Fund. The ASI was also undertaking conservation works at several monuments in the district.

An app providing comprehensive information about tourist destinations in Vijayapura has been developed to help tourists access information easily, Dr. Anand said. Several programmes were also being organised as part of World Tourism Day to create awareness about tourism and the preservation of historical heritage.

Earlier, a cleanliness drive was conducted at the Anand Mahal premises under the campaign. Tourism Department Deputy Director Aravind Hugar inaugurated the programme.

An art camp featuring senior and emerging artists was also organised at the historic Ibrahim Rauza premises in association with NTPC Kudgi and the Canvas Art Foundation. Dr. Anand inaugurated the camp by creating an artwork himself.

More than 25 artists participated in the camp. ASI Assistant Conservationist Vijaykumar, Hotel Association Secretary Vijaykumar Doni, officials of the City Corporation and Tourism Department, tourist guides, college students and members of the public were present.

Court summons co-op minister in 2018 case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

EIGHT years after a clash allegedly involving supporters of Cooperatives Minister Laxman Savadi, the case has resurfaced with a court in Athani directing him to appear in person on October 9.

The Fourth JMFC Court in Athani issued summons to Savadi while hearing a private complaint filed by Raju Jamkhandikar in connection with the 2018 incident.

Jamkhandikar had alleged that he was assaulted by Savadi's supporters after he questioned the minister about the funds released for the Talwar community. The complainant further alleged that the incident took place in Savadi's presence and that the clash was provoked by him.

A case was subsequently registered at the Athani police station in connection with the incident.

As the proceedings continued, the court has now directed Savadi to appear personally on October 9. The summons has brought the eight-year-old case back into focus, with the forthcoming hearing assuming significance.
